

What do you like best about Modern Governor?

Here's what some school governors like about Modern Governor, the online e-learning resources designed just for governors.

"I liked that I could do the course in my own time. Information was in 'bite size' blocks. the quiz parts were fun and there was immediate feedback if I went wrong. It was written in easy language and jargon-free."
School Governor, Cheshire

"Ease of access - from home. Works quickly and smoothly."

School Governor, Hampshire

"Simple to use and able to do it in my own time! School Governor, Leicestershire

"Easy to do in own time, no travelling and no need to give up extra time to travel or to sign up for courses and then find work commitments get in the way."

School Governor, Cheshire

"That it is an online course enabling me to study at a time to suit me - my work makes it difficult to find time during traditional 9-5 working hours to fit non work- related courses into my week on a regular basis." School Governor, Wolverhampton

"Could complete the course sitting at my computer at home and didn't have to rush to a local venue, with all the associated babysitting and 'husband not home on time' issues!" School Governor, Hampshire

"It gave me more insight into my role as a governor. I could take it in my own time, at my own pace."
School Governor, Hull

"It was useful to be able to read the information at my own pace and go over things I found complicated or especially important. I could access the course when I had time and it was convenient - I liked the quiz at the end that tested my understanding." School Governor, Hampshire

"Could be done at home. Could be started one day and finished another." School Governor, Wiltshire

"Easy to follow, accessible to governors from all backgrounds and working environment. Good layout, easy on the eye - easy to do late at night!"

School Governor, Nottinghamshire

"It is precise in its information and the format is easy on the eye. It gives a very accessible approach for governors at any stage in their role - from newly appointed to 'old hands' like me!" School Governor, Nottinghamshire
